In this case, if the number of compulsory hours is smaller than that in the table under Article 10 (Number of Compulsory Hours), the remuneration may be reduced according to the proportion set forth in 【Attached Table 1】 . (Amended on Dec. 27, 2012)
4. The remunerations for exchange faculty members shall be determined pursuant to the regulation on international exchange cooperation.
5. The remunerations and retirement allowances for non-tenured faculty members who do not fall under Clause 1, Article 14, shall be separately determined by the president at the time of the contract considering the careers of the relevant faculty members by referring to 【Attached Table 3】 . (Amended on Dec. 27, 2012)
6. Other welfare allowances such as holiday allowances, etc., shall be deemed to be included in the monthly remunerations.
7. The lecture fees for overtime (lectures exceeding the number of compulsory hours at the time of the contract) shall be paid pursuant to the regulation on full-time faculty members' number of compulsory lecture hours and lecture fee payments.
8. Retirement allowances shall be deposited every year only for those faculty members who receive monthly fixed remunerations; however, retirement allowances may be settled every middle of the year and paid with the agreement of the person concerned.

Article 15 (Recognition of Careers of Non-tenured Faculty Members who Work All Day Long for Remunerations)(Amended on Dec. 27, 2012)

1. The careers of Non-tenured Faculty Members who Work All Day Long following their new appointment are those after they obtained their master's degree and recognized based on the following (if careers overlap, however, only the higher career attainment shall be acknowledged) (Amended on Dec. 27, 2012):
 - (1) The education career as a tenured professor and the full-time career as a non-tenured professor at any of the universities or technical colleges specified in the regulations on

University Professor Qualification Standard, Etc.; shall be fully recognized. (Amended on Dec. 27, 2012)

(2) Careers as lecturer or part-time faculty member shall be recognized fully if the lectures given are 10 hours or more per week; in case of lectures less than 10 hours per week, the recognized career shall be reduced by 10% per hour. If the lectures are 5 hours or less per week, the recognized career shall be 50% of the period. (Amended on Dec. 27, 2012)

(3) PhD studies shall be fully recognized for up to 3 years.

(4) For those invited faculty members who are in charge of the Chaplain's Office, the career as pastor after the ordainment shall be fully recognized in addition to the careers under Items (1) ~ (3), and 70% of the career pertaining to pastoral duties after obtaining a master's degree related to pastoral duties (except for careers as pastor) shall be recognized; among the careers herein, however, those working part-time as pastor or in relation to pastoral duties shall be recognized as 50% of the periods (newly established on Oct. 25, 2006).

2. When recognizing careers, only those careers backed by career certificates shall be recognized; the career certificates submitted after the recognition of careers shall be used to recognize careers for the next reappointment.

Article 16 (Support for Official Trips for Academic Society Meetings)

1. Official trip expenses related to tenure track faculty meetings are supported once a year only for those part-time faculty members who work all day long. The official trip expenses shall be calculated according to the standards for Staff Member in accordance with the regulation on staff travel expenses; however, official overseas trip expenses shall be paid in the amount equal to the expenses for official trips to Seoul. (Amended on Jul. 10, 2012)

2. The number of days of an official trip in relation to the tenure track faculty meetings may not exceed 3 days.

Article 17 (Payment of Airfare)

1. When newly employing a foreign faculty member residing abroad, the round-trip airfare shall be paid on an actual expense basis provided it does not exceed KRW 1,200,000.
